CHINATOWN PARK FAVORED BY LOCAL BOARD

Evening World's Project Approved After Public Hearing.

ENGINEER SET TO WORK

Is Ordered to Draw Maps and Plans Ready for Board of Estimate in Two Weeks.

OLD ROOKERIES TO GO.

Playground Will Replace the Dens on Doyers and Pell Streets if Plan Goes Through.

The local Board of Public Improvements to-day approved the plan of The Evening World to wipe out Chinatown, and instructed engineers to prepare a map for submission to the Board of Estimate for its approval.

Conference was immediately arranged between Bartow S. Weeks, The Evening World's representative, J. L. Frazee and other interested persons. They will meet Engineer Webster tomorrow. The Board instructed the engineer to submit complete plans two weeks from to-day.

Scores of citizens attended the public hearing to-day at the City Hall on the project.

Borough President Ahearn, who presided, heard first from the opposition.

J. J. Hill, secretary of the Metropolitan Parks Association, of which Eugene A. Philbin is president, while voicing the opposition of his association to the park plan, made it clear that a plan to establish a playground for children in Chinatown was favored by the association. Secretary Hill urged that the large amount of money required for the proposed "Chinatown" Park could be spent to better advantage elsewhere.

Giuseppe Lordi, a Chinatown property-owner, opposed driving the evil of the section to houses and tenements elsewhere in the city.

Bartow S. Weeks, though called upon by the opposition, practically came out in advocacy of wiping out a large portion of Chinatown. He said that one of the purposes of the present agitation—to "let sunshine in Chinatown"—he favored heartily, and added:

"I would suggest a modified plan which would contemplate opening Elizabeth street through from Bayard and Pell to Chatham square, cutting a corner of Doyers street. This would open up the east side of Doyers street for a playground and plan, enlarge Chatham square and open up a larger breathing space, as well as furnish a direct line of travel to the approaches of the new bridges."

Borough President Ahearn asked if it would not be practicable to tear down the two blocks on the Bowery between Pell and Doyers streets. If such a plan is finally decided by the local Board of Estimate as it now exists will be wiped out.

J. L. Frazee, who has actively worked in behalf of the Chinatown Park project, as advocated by The Evening World, said that on the score of economy alone, apart from any questions of morality and sanitation the improvement would be justified. He said at least $20,000 a year would be saved to the city in the maintenance of Police and Fire Departments. Mr. Frazee eloquently dwelt upon his subject, told of the "dirty tinsel and brass of immorality" which is prevalent in Chinatown, and read letters and statements from the Chinese community in support of the project.

Frank Moss, the next speaker, declared Chinatown to be a "section of concentrated crime," having "the worst combination of white and yellow criminals in the world."

The law-breakers of Chinatown he called "brilliant" and "paying criminals." Ordinarily Chinatown has a Chinese population of eight or nine hundred, but on Sundays and Chinese holidays the population is enhanced to perhaps 5,000. These gather to gamble or gain by forms of vice known to the law.

The project to abolish Chinatown, said Mr. Moss, "is worth every dollar it is going to cost. Let us get rid of that degraded spot and make its iniquitous windings thoroughfares for the children, the poor women and the honest business man."

Mayor Siegel, secretary of the East Side Civic Club, presented a batch of papers, containing considerable official data culled from the records of the Health and Taxation House Departments showing the alarming conditions which exist in many of the rookeries of Chinatown.

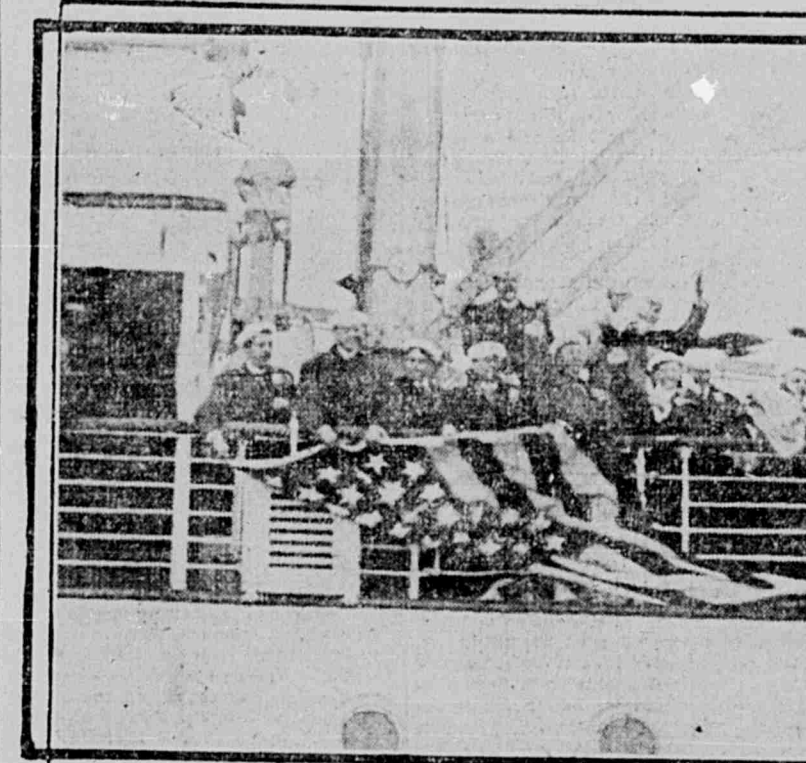

"I think The Evening World has done a great deal of good in bringing this to the public attention and I believe you are all with me in that respect."

Rev. Madison C. Peters said that the proposed cost of $3,000,000 for a park is a mere bagatelle as compared with the humanitarian and sanitary good to be accomplished.

"Why," said Mr. Peters, "there are a hundred women on Madison and Madison avenues who among them spend

AMERICAN ATHLETES WAVE US FAREWELL

The American athletes who are to compete for the international amateur honors at Athens sailed from this city to-day on the Barbarossa. They will disembark at Naples and then cross Italy to Piraeus.

There were thirty-two of America's greatest amateurs, representing all lines of sport.

Tugs bore parties of friends down the bay to accompany the steamship on the start of her journey, and there was great tooting of whistles and waving of American flags.

MAY BAR HOPPE FROM ALL CUE COMPETITIONS

Players Adopt Resolution Because He Won't Play in Big Tournament.

If Willie Hoppe persists in his refusal to compete in the big international tournament for the 182 ball-line championship of the world to be held in Madison Square Garden Concert Hall Monday, April 9, he will be debarred by a unanimous agreement of the contestants from ever competing for the emblem either in a later tournament or match game.

This decidedly sensational action was taken by the players who have entered the tournament at a meeting held by them in the offices of the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company, Fourth avenue and Eighteenth street, to-day. There were present Louis Cure, George P. Slosson, of this city, and Ora Morningstar, A. G. Cutler, of Boston, and Jacob Schneider, of Chicago, who are also certain players in the tournament, were represented by proxy.

Hoppe was not present, although he was notified that the meeting had been called. After due time and consideration of the playing rules the absence of Hoppe was discussed. It was stated that Hoppe had said that while he had withdrawn from the tournament, he would challenge the winner. This immediately excited a perfect storm of protests in which Cure, Slosson and Morningstar, with Slosson, participated. The general sentiment was to the effect that, having failed to enter the tournament and to undergo the nerve strain and muscle exhaustion, which is much greater than in match contests, no player had a right to play the tournament winner for the trophy in a single night of play.

It was when Charles P. Miller, manager for the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company, was invited by the players to state the result of his visit to Hoppe Monday evening that the greatest sensation was caused. Mr. Miller produced an agreement, dated Dec. 16, 1905, signed by Frank Hoppe, for Willie, a minor, in which the former agreed, for a consideration, that Willie should be entered in any billiard tournament the big international company might promote and that all his expenses would be paid in any such tournament held outside of Chicago. Mr. Miller stated that Hoppe, under this agreement, had been duly entered in the tournament to begin Monday at the Garden and notice had been sent the Hoppes to that effect. The company had not been notified that Willie Hoppe would not play.

Mr. Miller, however, said that he had called on Frank Hoppe last evening to ask if Willie intended to play in the tournament. Mr. Miller said that he had simply said "good night" to Hoppe and came away.

Other speeches of like nature followed and the following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted:

"It is hereby agreed by all the players
